

NEWS FLASH!

Anna Ciddor announces a writing competition to celebrate the publication of her latest book...

52 Mondays was inspired by Anna's memories of her childhood in 1960s Melbourne. It's a heart-warming story about three sisters who conjure up hilarious everyday adventures in a time before computer games, internet and mobile phones.

Publisher: Allen and Unwin

Release date: March 2019

For more information see annaciddor.com

To celebrate the launch of 52 Mondays, Anna is running heavily discounted workshops and writing competitions during Term 1 of 2019. The competition package consists of:

- a presentation by Anna on short story writing
- unlimited audience numbers (even grandparents are welcome)
- a follow-up short story writing competition
- Anna to judge a winner for each venue (from a shortlist chosen by the organisers)
- a prize for each winner

All presentations are suitable for Grade 3 to Year 7 students
